The goal of this course is to provide the investigator with the knowledge and skills to develop and conduct successful information-gathering for all aspects of criminal investigations. The concepts of interviewing and interrogation come packaged in many different forms and under many different names in today's law enforcement training environment. This class brings these elements to the forefront and when applied interactively with ongoing experience, it will enable the participants to greatly increase their success rate for information evaluation. Course Length: 3 days (24 hours)

Course Objectives

- To gain or update skills needed for information-gathering from subjects involved in a crime.
- To obtain truthful information.
- To identify interview guidelines.
- To learn to establish a normal baseline and search for changes in behavior.
- To use verbal analysis for listening.
- To use behavioral analysis.
- To design interrogation plans.
